“ *Hello, I'm sorry for your loss.
I found a letter from J. CHAS Mc NEIL. Master of Music. Dated March 14, 1947
It was addressed to whom I believe to be this Phillis May Wilson.
Included with the letter are the sheet music and lyrics to a song called "Unlucky in love"
I'm hoping to return this original letter and original music to its rightful owner. Thank you.

“ I can only hope to be married to the love of my life for 65 years like my grandparents were. Grandpa treated her as his queen and catered to her every need. When she asked him to do something for her he didn't just say "okay" he instead asked her exactly what it was that needed to be done so he could do it the exact way she wanted. I want to give my future wife exactly what grandpa gave to grandma, his all.

“ she was my other mother. I spent more time growing up at her home than my own. she had a laugh I still remember. she was one of the first faces I saw after a surgery I had in Indianapolis. I looked up and said my other mother.. we had so much fun picking asparagus, she was a wonderful friend to my mother as well and was always there when needed. sorry for the loss, but heaven gained a new angel...

“ I'm so sorry to you all for your loss. The pain and sorrow are for the ones left behind because the one who is gone suffers no more but we stay here and struggle to learn how to live without them. Hold onto each other and help each other through this difficult time. My thoughts are with you. -Nancy Karner Yoder
