“ The Day God Called You Home

*God looked around his Garden and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon his earth and saw your loving face.*

*He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.
His Garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering, he knew you were in pain.
And knew that you would never get well on earth again.
He saw your path was difficult, he closed you tired eyes,
He whispered to you "Peace be Thine" and gave you wings to fly.
When we saw you sleeping so calm and free of pain,
We would not wish you back to earth to suffer once again.
You've left us precious memories, your love will be our guide,
You live on through your children, you're always by our side.
It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you on the day God called you home.*

I love you Mom...##imported-begin##Sheila McGuffin##imported-end##

“ Grandma..I don't even know what to say. I'd give anything to be there to say good bye to you. I know I haven't been around the past few years, but you were and always will be in my thoughts. If it weren't for you and grandpa, I wouldn't have such an amazing mother and family. you will never be forgotten, and I will promise to always see myself in the light you saw me in, and life also. I hope you are in a better place with Grandpa and Noreen. Kiss the birdies and the horsies for me where you are. I love you. - Jess###imported-begin###Jessica Baker###imported-end##

“ *Dear Mom,
You are finally reunited in heaven with Noreen, Dad, and the Angels.
I will miss you longer than the end of time, you are now part of eternity.
I pray to God that I, too, will one day be reunited with you and God in, where there are no more tears, in heaven.*
