

R. Jennette Nagel

July 2, 1926 - March 2, 2017

R. Jennette Nagel, age 90, of Rensselaer, Indiana, passed away March 2, 2017 at Franciscan Health of Rensselaer. On July 2, 1926, she was born in Jordan Township, Jasper County to Fred and Sadie (Cooper) Young. She married Robert E. Nagel on September 11, 1947 at St. Augustine Catholic Church in Rensselaer, Indiana. She lived in Jasper County all her life and graduated from Remington High School with the class of 1944.

Jennette was employed as a bookkeeper for the former J.C. Penny's store for numerous years, the former Brook's Motor Sales and Nagel Mack Sales. She also owned her own business for several years.

Jennette was a longtime member of the St. Augustine Catholic Church. She was a charter member of the Pantry Pals Home Extension organization, where she held various offices. She was a past member of the Rensselaer Garden Club and the Ladies Literary Club, where she held several offices. She organized one of the Red Hat societies in Rensselaer, the Clad Red Hatters, with nearly 20 members. They traveled to various towns to eat and visit interesting sights in and around the area. She also enjoyed working with her flowers and vegetable garden. She and her husband also enjoyed traveling and visited 48 of the 50 United States over the years, including the Caribbean Islands and Central America.

Jennette is survived by several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, her late husband Robert and three brothers, Milo, Jay and Robert.

Memorial contributions in memory of Jennette may be made to Robert Monfort 116 N. Van Rensselaer Street Rensselaer, IN 47978 to be gifted to the “Involved for Life” Fund
