“ I Have known Ralph for about 40 yrs.from KY. Not sure exactly but we were campers at Missing Hill Resort & he & his wife grew vegetables & fruits & he put a steel box out in the front yard with his produce & expected everyone to be as honest as he was. He donated the proceeds to the Cancer Society to help others. Every weekend I'd go sit in the swing with his wife & spent much time with them. When she passed away Ralph was so heartbroken. He missed her so badly & one time even wished GOD would take him HOME TO HEAVEN. But as time went by he found life again in his little church at New Mt. Carmel Baptist Church We bought a place close to him & continued buying produce from him. He always called me his tomato & cucumber girl. He always challenged to have the first tomato & cucumber in the neighborhood & always won. He loved Everybody even the one who finally stole his money box, he was disappointed but never bad mouthed them.Ralph you are going to be sadly missed by your KY family & friends. RIP. Prayer to the family for your loss.
Sincerely
Ronnie & Bettye Davis.
