

Randall L Gordon

October 21, 1950 - February 1, 2014

Randall L. Gordon, age 63, of Walkerton, Indiana passed away on February 1, 2014 at the Millers Merry Manor in Walkerton. Randall was born October 21, 1950, in Gary, Indiana. He was the son of N. Evelyn (Parks) Alton and Edward Gordon.

Randall was employed in labor production and worked in factory settings for most of his life, including Monon Trailer, Aker Plastics and American Rice. Randy enjoyed fishing, camping and watching westerns and police programs on television.

Randall is survived by many nieces and nephews whom he loved to spoil when they were growing up and who adored their dearest uncle. Also surviving are two sisters, Gail Naffziger, Minnesota, and Nancy (Richard) Arrasmith, Walkerton, Ind., and one brother, Danny (Darcy) Fivecoat, Crown Point, Ind. Randall was preceded in death by his parents, Edward Gordon and N. Evelyn Alton, and three sisters, Sharon Gordon, Sherrell Gordon-Fordham and Dixie Alton.

Family services will be held at a later date. Jackson Funeral Chapel of Rensselaer assisted the family.

“ Randy loved to travel and spend time outdoors with his family whether it be camping on a beach, in the woods, desert or mountains. Traveling to DisneyWorld, SeaWorld, Astroworld or the closest DNR site to fish. Late night card games, dominos or sitting around a campfire were all a good time spent chatting with and teasing everyone. Randy loved our cooking and pineapple upside down cake and deviled eggs will always make us think of him. We love and miss you big brother.

I have a memory to share when Uncle Randy and Aunt Dixie lived in Freeport near the Jr High there was a railroad track everyone called Thrill hill!!! it went up and down at a big slant.If you hit it just right you would so called loose your stomach! lol.. Me and Evelyn went to visit with Nancyand James also. James was younger. Me and Evelyn were wanting to go over the tracks fast so Uncle Randy took us and we got in a Mini Van they had and went over the tracks back and forth as fast as he could go like 5 or 6 times! Once we got a little air and hearing him being the grown up in the front seat Hollering OH SH*&!!! was hilirarious me and Eve I believed laughed more at that point about him then hitting our heads on the roof of the Van. Evelyn I wonder if you still remember this I do!!! All this while Listening to NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK!! driving UNcle Randy crazy!!...lol That was our Dukes of Hazard Moment!!

He loved us so much that he would tolerate and even play into our nonsense. Missing him so much right now.
