“ I met Raymond 25 years ago when I was a cashier at Strack & VanTil in Merrillville. He and his wife had went thru my line and were writing a check for their groceries. When I read his name on the check I told him that Grembowicz was my maiden name. He then asked who my father was and I told him Joseph. He then stuck out his hand and said "Hello Joanne, nice to meet you. I'm your uncle." I was floored. He and Carol were very nice to me. A few weeks later he came to the store and looked me up. He gave me my original birth certificate which my father had since he and my mother split when I was two. That was so nice. So rest in peace Raymond, you were a kind man. Joanne McGuire
