

Rebecca Sue Overton

February 3, 1925 - June 26, 2013

Rebecca Sue Daniels Overton, born February 3, 1925, in Rensselaer, Indiana, died June 26, 2013, in Denver, Colorado, where she had lived for the past four years.

Sue was a long time resident of North Knoxville and was a member of the Fairmont Presbyterian Church. Sue had a passion for art and was an accomplished artist working in many media. Among the highlights of her artistic career were being chosen as a Dogwood Artist of the Month and teaching art classes at the Argyle in Denver.

Sue was preceded in death by her husband, Max N. Overton, Sr.; parents, Elmer and Leota Daniels; brother, William Daniels; sisters, Jean Light and Virginia Pearce.

Survived by children, Susan Emory and husband, Bill, of Murfreesboro, Tennessee, Thomas J. Overton and wife, Sally, of Golden, Colorado, and Max N. Overton and wife, Chris, of Sevierville, Tennessee; grandchildren, Andrew Emory of Asheville, North Carolina, Evan McKnight of New York, New York, Thomas C. Overton and Emma Overton of Sevierville, Tennessee.

A Graveside Service for Sue will be held at Weston Cemetery on Saturday, September 13, 2014, at 11:00 A.M. with Dr. James Blanchard officiating. Inurnment will follow. Sue's services entrusted to Jackson Funeral Chapel of Rensselaer.

Cemetery Details

Weston Cemetery

Weston Cemetery
Rensselaer, IN 47978
(219) 866-5626

Tribute Wall

MS

“ Sue was a wonderful lady, so kind and thoughtful. Her son Tom and our son Gary were roommates at Davidson College in Davidson, N.C. We have many fondy memories of watching our sons play football and visiting at halftime and after the games. Rest In Peace Sue. Meredith & Joe Stokes Georgetown, Illinois

Meredith & Joe Stokes - September 12, 2014 at 11:01 PM

“ Strength & Solace Spray was purchased for the family of Rebecca Sue Overton.

September 12, 2014 at 10:54 AM