“ You have been my friend for so so many years, we have shared joy, laughter and even a few tears. My heart aches with sorrow and feels so broken, last time I saw you, I told you I loved you, how proud I was from me those words were spoken. I feel so selfish for wanting to see your face, but I know god has taken you to be in your place. These words can never express how I feel about you inside, but my beloved Becky my guardian angel I know you are by my side. I love you##imported-begin##Danielle##imported-end##

“ To the family of Rebecca Shindle:

It is always sad to loss a very dear member of the family, but it is especially difficult when it is someone so young. It causes us much sorrow. It is my hope as a volunteer to bring to the family a comforting thought. In the Bible book of John chapter 11:11, 14, Jesus likens death to sleep. Thinking of our loved ones as in a deep sleep can bring us peace of mind and heart. Further words of Jesus point to a happy future for our loved ones. He says at John 5:28, 29: "Do not marvel at this, because all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." Yes, there is true hope for an awakening from this sleep. We can be confident that all those in God's memory will receive a resurrection. What a beautiful promise! Please accept our deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Jackie##imported-end##

“ My darling daughter,

Although we aren't together and haven't been for a number of years, you have always been in my thoughts and in my mind. I have always loved you and always will. I have followed your life and am extremely proud of you. I have very fond memories of the day you were born, your lactose intolerance, your first airplane flight to meet your new brother, your first day of kindergarten, you playing basketball, teaching you to drive, especially backing up, your graduation, and the list goes on and on. You were very close to your grandmother Leib, you missed her greatly and now you are reunited with her once more. I feel truly blessed to have had you as a daughter, you have made me proud. I know cherish the memories even more, I smile when I think of you. I do not mourn your death, instead I celebrate your life and your accomplishments. I know in my heart that you are with God and that it was his decision to bring you home for eternal happiness. Becky, I love you and will remember you always.
