“Peggy, I'm so sorry to hear about Bob. I just saw it in the church news letter. When I worked at Wright's and he returned from Viet Nam, he would speak of you but he didn't call you Peggy, he always said, "My Margaret."
I thought that was the sweetest thing. He was such a nice guy. I'm so sorry for your loss.

Robert was like a brother. There are many memories that could be shared, but one was as a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, Bud and Sandy Culp were the leaders. Robert, my brother Steven, and I were among several youth who learned a new song for a Barkley Methodist Church program MC'ed by Robert's sister Carol. (She did a great job.) The song was "How Great Thou Art!" I remembered that night from decades ago, and thought of Robert and Steven when our church in Tulsa sang the song in worship (out of the ordinary) on 2-16-2025. I pray blessings for families, extended families, and friends, especially Peg, Charlie, and Jimmy. Neil Clapp

Steven, Lorna and I were the first ones on Ellis Kelly's school bus in the morning on route to Rensselaer Jr and Sr High Schools. Miles later, when Robert got on the bus, he had his GEOMETRY textbook. He would take out a clean sheet of notebook paper and do his homework. He had the problems solved, proofs written, in excellent legible form, placed folded in his textbook before we got to town! I always looked up to him. This is only one of many reasons why. “Peggy, Charlie & Jimmy: We are still shocked about hearing of Robert's passing. What a great guy to lose! Kenny's first association with Robert was at a 4H 'slave' auction. Kenny purchased Robert. who was 10 years old. When he went to pick up Robert to work, Bob's dad came out to talk to Kenny. "You know he's kinda of scrawny & not too strong; don't work him too hard."

He was a whiz at putting furniture together for an auction. How he could sit on one of his legs, on the cement floor & unpack boxes, looked so painful. He would just smile & say. "I could sit like this all day!" We always got a chuckle out of his lunch menu. How so little could keep him going. He was always enjoyable to work with and be around. Kenny & Sandra Culp
