

Robert E. Nagel

December 18, 1920 - March 3, 2013

Robert Edward Nagel, 92, of Rensselaer passed away March 3, 2013 at the Rensselaer Care Center. Robert was born December 18, 1920, in Jasper County, to Edward and Louise (Hildebrand) Nagel. He married Jennette Young on September 11, 1947, at the St. Augustine Church in Rensselaer. Robert attended St. Augustine Catholic School and Rensselaer and Remington High School. In July, 1942, he entered the U.S. Army at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis. From Fort Dix, New Jersey, he was transferred to the Army Air Corps and sent overseas to Jorhat Air Base, in India, remaining there until he was discharged November, 1945. At the base he was in the 22nd Air Transport command in charge of transportation on the air base. Supplies were being flown over the Himalayn's (The Hump) to the Chinese in China who were fighting the Japanese.

He was a member of the St. Augustine Catholic Church in Rensselaer, the Holy Name Society, American Legion Post #29 Veterans of Foreign War Post #1279, the China, Burma, India Assoc. (CBI), Tecumseh Basha at Lafayette, Ind., and the State and National organizations of the CBI. He held offices and was Commander of the Tecumseh Basha for several years and Adjunct of the State CBI and Chef de Gare of the 40 & 8.

Robert was employed at the Jasper County Farm Bureau Co-Op for over 35 years in the petroleum department. He enjoyed golfing, fishing and traveling. He is survived by his wife, Jennette Nagel, several nieces and nephews and great-nieces and great-nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, 2 sisters, Eileen Jenkins and Mary M. Werner and a brother, William Nagel.

Memorials may be made to the St. Augustine Catholic School
