“ Ronnie was a staple at the gun club. He was quiet, funny, friendly, and such a kind soul. He was always willing to lend a hand or help out in any way he could. I know I speak for everyone at the club when I say he will be greatly missed! Every weekend I looked forward to seeing him and chatting. You could always tell if he was having a ‘good health’ day by his smile. Ronnie, I hope you never have to wire another button 😊

“ Ron has been a dear friend ever since we first met back in 1976 while attending church together. He taught our adult Sunday School class and served as an elder. He taught my husband and me a great deal from the Scriptures and lived it out in his life, even through some painful personal difficulties. I'll always admire him for his walk with the Lord, and be thankful for his example and friendship. Praise God, he's finally at Home with Jesus. 💜🙏

Such a kind gentle soul, a prince of a guy as my husband would say about Ron, which he often did. He's just the kind of person you would order for a neighbor and we were blessed to have him here. His wife is the best and she deserved the best and that is what she go with Ron. Rest in peace dear friend.
