“ I am deeply sorry to hear of the passing of Russell. He was a kind person, as well as a strong person. It was hard for him to give up farming. I met Russell through his wonderful wife, Ann who attended the same church that I did. We had several meals at the smith's farm while attending church services. Russell and Ann didn't have to be special to draw friends to them, they drew friends to them by being themselves. They both will be missed by a great many friends, but we know that we will see them both again in God's world. Bill Ennis
