

Ruth Cook

November 12, 1908 - December 26, 2010

Ruth Cook, age 102, a lifetime resident of Rensselaer, passed away December 26, 2010 at the Rensselaer Care Center. Ruth was born in McCoysburg, Indiana on November 12, 1908 to Russell William and Lena Wilhelmina (Ringelisen) Willits.

Ruth was raised in McCoysburg and attended the Jasper County schools. She was affiliated with the McCoysburg Methodist Church and the Trinity United Methodist Church in Rensselaer. On January 22, 1927, in Crown Point, Indiana she married Scott Cook who passed away March 7, 1977.

Ruth was an accomplished seamstress, enjoyed making rag rugs and vegetable and flower gardening.

She is survived by her children, Jeanette Pickett, Crawfordsville, IN and Scott E. Cook, Rensselaer, IN; 8 grandchildren, 9 great-grandchildren, 3 great-great grandchildren and a sister-in-law, Janet Willits, Rensselaer, IN. Ruth was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, two sister's, Margaret Maxwell and Mildred Sedan and a brother, William R. Willits.

Previous Events

Visitation

DEC 29. 9:00 AM - 11:00 AM (CT)

Jackson Funeral Chapel of Rensselaer
250 N. McKinley Avenue
P.O. Box 70
Rensselaer, IN 47978
(219) 866-5123
info@jacksonfuneral.com
<https://www.jacksonfuneral.com>

Tribute Wall

“ What a truely nice lady. She had a kindness that came through when you were around her as her mother did. Know Ruth is with many loved one's now and they can hear perfectly. Her dad's playing his violin and her mom the piano. What a grand time they're having.##imported-begin##Stan & Jan Wright##imported-end##

January 03, 2011 at 04:39 PM

“ Ruth was such a wonderful person. Always so kindhearted. I remember the rugs she made, they were amazing. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##Jackie Tiede Checkley##imported-end##

December 28, 2010 at 08:55 AM