

Ruth A. Miller

December 22, 1950 - January 21, 2024

Ruth Miller, age 73, of Rensselaer, passed away January 21, 2024. Ruth was born on December 22, 1950 to the late Ivan and Viola Linback.

Ruth was best known for her love of animals, both with her dogs and the livestock she raised. She took pride in her flowers and enjoyed gardening. If you caught her while she was cooking you were coaxed in with “try this, just a little wont hurt you” and you walked away with more than a heaping portion. In her down time, you could find Ruth playing card games or completing puzzles.

Ruth leaves to mourn in her loss, her husband, Bruce Miller, sons; Scott (Nikkey) Stevens, Todd (Wendy) Stevens, Brad (Erica) Stevens, and Aaron (Mildred Seneriz) Miller, grandchildren; Tyler Stevens, Alexandria Stevens, Brandon (Hannah) Stevens and Taylor Miller, sisters; Jan Kruger and Carol (Mike) Meeks.

Ruth is proceeded in death by her parents, brothers; Donald "Don" Linback and Richard "Butch" Linback, and brother-in-law Kenneth Kruger.

Family and friends are invited to Jackson Funeral Chapel on Thursday, January 25, 2024 at 3:00 p.m. until the time of service at 7:00 p.m.

“ I knew Ruth in her younger days. I remember a day of baling in the field just East of Gary Kruger current home. I was 15 driving the tractor and baler and Ruth was 18 and loading the hay wagon. It was a hot day and Ruth and I had a good time getting the job done. She was always in a good mood and I enjoyed every meeting we ever had! She came from a great family. I enjoyed all of my encounters with Butch, Don, Carol, and of course my Aunt Jan. Ruth will be missed. Roger Doll

“ Our love is being sent from Washington. Ruth treated everyone like family and will be missed greatly. I loved talking to her about the pups, her chickens, and what trouble Bruce and Dean had gotten into. Also the great stories of Aaron and "Joey" (Joe Bates). Our hearts are hurting and we're with everyone in prayer as they mourn the loss of Ruth.
