“ I said goodbye to my old friend Sheree today....I watched the video, and saw how much family meant to her....FaceBook got us back in touch after all these years! I loved her posts. . Doo, you have my thoughts and prayers. The last thing she said to me was "I love you Kathy" as I was saying goodbye to her at Audrey's memorial. I told her I loved her also....I'm glad. Her daughter Jennifer did a wonderful heartfelt eulogy! I was beautiful!! RIP, old friend....<3 She was a great person!

“ I just watched the video of the life tribute for my dear friend Sheree, and My heart is truly broken, not only was she a kindred spirit but an amazing wife and mother and grandmother. there's not words that can be spoken to ease the pain that this family must be going through, but know that I will lift you all up in prayer, for God to comfort you all. Doo I know that these past few months must be a pain you never knew before, but I tell you that only the lord can help you through this. No one else knows you deepest pains. “ Sheree friended me on Facebook. We went from first grade to high school. We enjoyed each others humor and shared many a comment. Just as we got reacquainted, she was taken away. But that short time was valuable. She shared her love of family and taught us the importance of them special moments. Your in a good place now, with your daughter and earned a special place in God's Kingdom.

“ I haven't see Sheree for many years but I remember her from high school days and she was someone that touched my heart and I never forgot her without thinking of her with a smile. She reached out to me as a very pleasant and sweet, fun, loving person. She was a brief but significant blessing in my life. I wish I could of been in touch with her later in life.

I am sorry for family and friends for losing her so soon. I am sure you all were very lucky to have her in your lives.

RIP Sheree.

Gone but not forgotten.
