“ She was one of the sweetest ladies that I knew. She was a strong hard working lady that lived through the loss of three of her children, her husband and yet carried on to raise the rest of her family. Always happy when she seen you and a good friend to my mom. Rest in Peace Shirley, I know God has a special place for you.

“ Thanks for letting us call you Grandma even though Beanie thought your name was Cheryl for 10 years. Thanks for always having a hug and kiss for us. We remember you getting pulled over on 49 for driving too slow on the way to Chicago in the yellow sedan. Love, Blaze & Beanie
