

Stanley Peter Pieza

October 22, 1970 - March 19, 2020

Stanley Peter Pieza 49 of Wheatfield, Indiana passed away on March 19, 2020 at his home from natural causes.

Born on October 22, 1970 in Chicago, Illinois to John S. Pieza Sr. and Sun cha Pieza. Stanley grew up in Chicago. He attended St. Rita Grammar School on South Fairfield Street. He played football there and later at St. Rita High School where he graduated in 1989. He was proud St. Rita Mustang.

Stanley attended Lewis University and graduated with an Associates degree and his FAA Airframe and Powerplant license. He worked several years for Allen Aircraft and Radio as a part inspector. He transitioned to becoming a diesel mechanic and worked for RC Cola. He also spent many years working with his father at his auto shop in Chicago.

Stan loved riding motorcycles, snowmobiles, and skiing. He was a marksman and enjoyed time on the shooting range. He was a devoted Chicago Bears and Notre Dame Fighting Irish fan. He loved his Chicago sports teams: White Sox, Cubs, and Blackhawks. He enjoyed watching television and movies.

Stan was a loving and devoted son, brother, and uncle. He loved and admired his grandfather and namesake a great deal. He was proud of and mentored his nephew and godson, Simon Pieza. He took care of his parents with whom he lived these past few years after he was diagnosed with lupus.

Stanley was preceded in death by his grandparents, survived by his parents; John(Sun Cha) Pieza Sr., brother; John(Irene) Pieza Jr. and nephew; Simon Pieza.
