“ There just isn't enough words to describe what a wonderful, loving caring, person and devoted teacher Sue was.. When my grandson had a seizure in her class she called me almost every night for several weeks with so much concern and love for him, and I will never forget the day she personally drove one of my daughters home after having an issue at school which was out of her way because of the love and concern for her..it was never forgotten!! Many prayers, to the family and may God be with all of you during this difficult time..

“ My daughters loved Sue, she was one of the few teachers they felt comfortable with. She would lovingly listen to every story that they chose to tell her (and she never held any of those stories against me, lol), from how their new puppy pooped in their school shoes to how their daddy "only visited on the weekends".... or when she allowed them to bring their very large dog into the school for show and tell (which their classmates still talk about). She had a way with children that few people possessed. She was a gift to the students, school, community, and her friends and family. She will be missed.

Sue was the greatest sister anyone could ever want, never complaining and fighting her heart out to win over this nasty thing called cancer.
