“ I am saddened to learn of the loss of your dear Tammy. Please take solace in the knowledge that Our Heavenly Father has already made provision to awaken her from sleep. This is no mere fantasy. Gods' Word The Bible has nine recorded accounts of people who were brought back to life. Jesus tells us a future global Resurrection at John 5:28-29 . There we read in part, "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear His voice and come out...". The earth will be restored to a Paradise where sickness death and sorrow will be gone forever (Psalms 37:9-11,29 and Rev 21:4 ). These are the conditions Tammy will awaken to. May this wonderful promise from God, and your pleasant memories of her life bring you a great measure of comfort and sooth all your broken hearts until you can be reunited. In Sympathy, Mrs. D. Ward Michigan

“ I look back to the days of running the streets of the small town where we grew up, the memories that we made together and shared. Your smile is even more beautiful than I remember. All the times we spent together are all rushing back as I sit wondering where the time went and why we never stayed in touch. I'll forever hold our childhood memories and pray for your husband and children to stay close during this time of grief. It's painful to sit here and stare at you and know your not with us on earth anymore, until we meet again <3
