“ I keep coming across Tara's name and missing her more. I am so sorry for your loss Scott, Ashlyn and all of the family. I continue to have you all in my prayers for God's comfort and peace. I met Tara when we worked together at HomeStreet Bank. From the first day she started we hit it off and became friends. I was pregnant, and even when I was uncomfortable and grumpy she could always make me laugh and smile. We could talk about anything and everything, she gave me motherly advice and we shared so many laughs and jokes in the short time we got to work together. She was such a caring, kind person and she really shined the light of Jesus even on gloomy days. I will never forget her!

“ Erin, Andy, and Brin Horein are in our small group at River Valley Church. Since our group started a couple of years ago, Erin has continually talked about her love for Scott and Tara. They were so excited and blessed to be able to visit Scott and Tara this past August. Because of our love for Erin, Andy, and Brin, we feel that we somehow are connected to Scott, his daughter, and Erin's parents and hurt deeply for you all.

While this will probably never make any human sense, our prayer is that God will over time put His hand of comfort upon you all.

“ My favorite memory of Tara was when we went to the Bret Michaels concert at the Emerald Queen casino several years ago. We had both watched that terrible Rock of Love show whenever it was on, so we found it amusing that he was actually coming to town for a concert. Once we decided to leave the concert & venture into the casino we spotted a group of guys dressed up as Bret & couldn't resist the opportunity to take hilarious photos. I snapped a few pictures of Tara until I got a cute one (duh) and then heard shouting. It was a security guard from the casino yelling that we were not allowed to take photos because we were in the casino... But I still didn't have a photo of myself with the Bret look alikes!! So we smiled & said oh ok, sorry... Then without hesitation I posed for a photo & Tara snapped several more before we were asked to leave & quickly escorted out by security!!

Our love of terrible reality tv shows, high heels, selfies, drinks with friends & laughter was what brought us so close together. You always made me smile Tara, no matter the situation. You lived your life for your family & you did it right.

*The world is a little darker today without you in it, but I am so glad to have had the short time together that we did. I love you & know you are watching over me & all of your loved ones now. I know that Scott & Ashlyn are hurting right now without you, along with the rest of your family. I pray that they find comfort in knowing how many lives you touched & how many smiles you brought to us all. I will miss you deeply my friend & know we will meet again someday. XO

“ My heart aches for your family Tara. You were taken too soon.

Tara was full of life and laughter and I always enjoyed her sense of humor. I will always remember you taking the time and thought to bring me a gorgeous bouquet of flowers to congratulate me on finishing my degree. You personally delivered them and told me how such an accomplishment should be celebrated. Thank you and I will never forget that. I'm grateful for the years we worked together.

I pray for Ashlyn, I pray she grows to know the place she held in her mothers heart. She loved her family so much.

I'm sorry Scott for your loss, Tara was greatly loved and will forever be missed.
