“ To the Cavinder family, I am sorry for your loss of Taylor, and sorry that I can't be there to express my personal sympathies, due to surgery I had Tuesday. I just want you to know that much of my day is consumed with thoughts and prayers for you. The grief is unimaginable. May the Good Lord, who willingly lost His Son unto death for us, so that we may have hope and life beyond death, give you hope and peace in these most difficult times.##imported-begin##Jared Raebel##imported-end##

“ Taylor was truly a diamond in the rough. I never knew it, but she was one of the few who would actually take the time to make friends with my brother, Matt. The fact that she would always say "hi" to him, make sure that he returned the gesture, partnered up with him for classes, read to him, and just make him feel like a loved brother at his school is something I'll never forget. She was a special woman, one who was not afraid to do what few others would others would do, such as befriending a handicap kid. She even enjoyed talking with him, and she will never be forgotten for the wonderful person she was to my brother.##imported-begin##Amy Krupa##imported-end##

You and Taylor's friends are in my thoughts and prayers. You have my sincere and heartfelt sympathy.##imported-begin##Karen Pajkos - DeMotte, IN##imported-end##

“ Well sweetie, I never thought I would live the day to see this happen. Its really a shock to me & I can not believe that you are gone. I am going today to pay my respects to a beautiful girl who impacted so many lives & will live on to do so. You meant so much to so many people. I am thankful you had time with everyone you loved & everyone who loved you had the time they did with you. I am never going to forget the football games, you always had a smile on your face. You were loud, but in the best way possible, ;) & you know what I mean. All those times we chatted, talking about our little girly issues, lol. & the times you complimented me on Layla Hope. :) You were special Taylor, in so many ways & you had a big heart. You were a sweetheart who is now an angel from above watching over everyone. I know you are doing a great job at that too. How I wish I could bring you back, for at least one more day but instead for eternity. Sadly, I know that can not be done. May you Rest In Peace, you are with the Angels now. Watch over your buddy Trev, & everyone else who is taking this so hard. My wishes go out to the Cavinder family & everyone impacted. You are in my thoughts & prayers, as we let a wonderful person go to rest. Love you Taylor, Rest In Peace little cousin.##imported-begin##Brittany Hoffman##imported-end##

“ It breaks my heart to read about the loss of your beautiful daughter. Although there is nothing anyone can say to take away the pain you are feeling, I hope it helps to know how much others care, even though we have never met. May it bring you comfort to know that God cares. Psalms 56:8 says He collects all our tears and preserves them in his bottle and records everyone in his book. He promises to soon swallow up death and wipe away all the tears from our faces. (Isaiah 25:8) It is my wish that these thoughts from the Bible will give you peace of mind and hope. You will be in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Debbie Rich##imported-end##
