“ She had touched the lives of so many ..
Saved the souls of young and old alike...
She was a mother , a wife. a friend.
A pastor, a prayer warrior, she loved her husband her children her Grand children...
Her congregation loved her ..
She spoke often of her family, and the love she had for them.
Desperately wishing to see them a Sunday here or there , always wishing , always hoping...
Never giving in to the enemy..
Always seeking God , and his eternal wisdom..
I was fortunate to have shared a meal or two w her and Fred ..
We laughed we talked we pondered things if this world and how to help those in it ...
Always seeking the guidance of the lord ...
One of our favorite stories she had shared w us was of the time when her and Fred had met ...
We listend w eagerness as the sparkle still remained in both of there eyes ..The deep love they shared for each other through all the trials and tribulations..
There love and strength forged in the furnace,
Purified through God and there many blessings..
Dearest Pastor we love u and will miss u , our sister in Christ forever ..amen...

“ My favorite memory was my last memory of grandma. As she lay sick in her bed she grabbed my and and we prayed together. She had such an amazing love for god, she was 200% committed to the lord. Even on her death bed when she couldn't speak she folded those hands and prayed. I layed my hands on hers and got down on my needs. I prayed with her, i prayed that the lord would relieve her from her pain. May you rest in peace grandma and your faith live on through your family. We love you, until we meet again! ”
