

Wesley DeYoung

January 27, 1939 - December 3, 2023

Wesley DeYoung, 84, peacefully passed away on Sunday, December 3, 2023, at his residence in Pomona Park. Born in Schererville, Indiana, he made his home in Putnam County from 1992, having previously lived in Dyer, IN.

From the tender age of 18 until 53, Wesley dedicated himself to farming. Transitioning later, he spent many fulfilling years as a caregiver in the healthcare industry. His heart found solace and joy in the simplicity of gardening, sports, and the beauty of nature's outdoors. His fascination with birds, particularly delighting in feeding and observing them, brought him immense happiness. A devout Baptist, he found comfort in the embrace of the First Baptist Church of Pomona Park.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Fred and Teena DeYoung, along with five brothers, Sam, Bernard, George, Edward, William, and two sisters, Theresa and Bernice.

numerous nieces and nephews.

Family and friends are invited to honor and pay their respects during the visitation at Jackson Funeral Service of DeMotte on Thursday, January 11, 2024, starting at 11:00 AM until 1:00 PM. A heartfelt Funeral Service will commence promptly at 1:00 PM, followed by the burial at Holland Cemetery.
