

Wilda B. Waling

August 25, 1927 - May 9, 2010

Wilda Bernice Waling, age 82, of Rensselaer passed away at the Jasper County Hospital May 9, 2010. Wilda was born August 25, 1927 in Rensselaer, the daughter of the late Emelia B. (Zabel) and Lawrence E. Waling.

Wilda was a lifetime resident and a 1945 graduate of Rensselaer High School. She retired from Brooks Motor Sales where she was the bookkeeper for 22 years. Wilda was a member of the First Christian Church of Rensselaer.

Wilda is survived by Max Schultz, brother-in-law and Ruth Waling, sister-in-law, both of Rensselaer; Roger Schultz, Steve Waling, Chip Waling, Randy Waling and Mark Waling, nephews; Gail Roth, niece and several great-nieces and great-nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, a sister, Betty Schultz, and two brothers, Delos Waling and Lawson Waling.

Previous Events

Visitation

MAY 13. 9:00 AM - 11:00 AM (CT)

First Christian Church
327 N. Van Rensselaer Street
Rensselaer, IN

Service

MAY 13. 11:00 AM (CT)

First Christian Church
327 N. Van Rensselaer Street
Rensselaer, IN

Tribute Wall

“ *Ruth and family,
You are in our thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##kathleen kaar##imported-end##*

May 13, 2010 at 10:38 AM

“ *To all the Waling family you have my sincere condolences. I worked with Wilda at Northway Products back in the 60's when there was only three girls in the office and the factory was all men. She worked in bookkeeping with Gordon Blackhall and I worked as receptionist and typed orders. Glenda Snow was the other girl in purchasing.
Wilda was such a good friend. I will miss her.##imported-begin##Gail Mitchell##imported-end##*

May 11, 2010 at 12:04 PM