“ I remember when I was younger and I would be running late for school and running to your house saying uncle red will you take me to school, and I also remember you, aunt Barbara, my dad, and mom playing spades, rook or some kind of game and y'all constantly laughing and Aunt Barbara hollering Wilson and momma calling you Milford. Oh so many more fun loving memories.

It's a little after midnight, usually about this time of night I would find you having a midnight snack at the kitchen table, I would sit and have a snack with you. We had some great conversations this time of night. I'm going to miss those. I have a lot of fun memories that we shared...the soapy eggs is one of them :) I miss you so much. It's going to be lonely with out you around. Hearing you tell mom (while she's on the phone with me) "Tell her I love her" I love you too daddy always have always will!! You were the best dad a girl could want. I will continue to constantly try to make you proud. I love you and forever will miss you. Love, Crystal

“ My thoughts and prayers are with u all now and in time ahead for the Family. I have so many childhood memories with Red and Barb and kids. We use to live down the road and remember going to house all time. There is not a memory I have without Red in it. I will treasure all the memories I have.
