January 19, 1930 - March 15, 2024

Wilma Davis, a cherished resident of DeMotte, Indiana, went home to be with the Lord on March 15, 2024, surrounded by her loved ones. Born on January 19, 1930, in Highland, Indiana, she was the daughter of Rudolph and Hildina (Kreft) Huge.

Wilma dedicated her career as a seamstress at Jacklyn's, Department Store in Highland, showcasing her skill and passion for creating. She was married to her first husband, Jack E. Davis, and later to Dave Helgren, both of whom preceded her in death.

is further treasured by her seven great-grandchildren: Dominic, Anthony, Izzy, Emma, Grant, Jacob, and Madison, as well as her sister-in-law, Marilyn Huge.

“ Pam and I have been friends since grade school. Mrs Davis was always so sweet. She was so fortunate to have had such a caring daughter these last years of her life. I know the loving memories will bring comfort to her family during this difficult time...

“ I've been friends with Pam since high school. I loved going to Pam's house because Mrs. Davis was always so kind, with a smile on her face and she always looked beautiful. I was in awe of all the things she created for their home to make it so homey and neat. I'm so sorry Pam for your loss. You and Dave took such good care of her and she always knew it. Hugs.
