“ *Dear Tokarz Family,
I am so sorry for your loss. Eva was a great person and her smile would just make your day better. I will miss our talks and her laugh at some of the things I told her about my family. We shared a lot and I feel like I have lost a member of my personal family.*

What a beautiful lady and beautiful smile. I will never forget our first conversation on the phone. Funny conversation since I thought I was talking to another Eva! Not the beautiful Eva who was happily married with 2 beautiful daughters. Beautiful Eva inside and out RIP. You always were so caring & compassionate with everyone. What a loss to everyone who knew you. You are missed!!!!

“ I was blessed to "work" with Eva on the Speaking of Women's Health steering committee and then again able to enjoy her through the Spirit of Women's Health effort. Her energetic, kind and caring persona shone through all that she did. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and all who knew her. I believe she is now an angel watching over us all! Eva was a kind and beautiful woman! I will miss seeing Eva at the soccer games. It would make me smile when you would kind of yell at Sam at the games & she'd give you this look. I promise I will cheer extra hard for Sam! Thank you for the kind words you said to me the past few months since I lost Joe. Now, I will return the kindness to your family. Tony, Stephanie, and Samantha I am sorry for your loss. Hold on tight to all the love she gave you. In your heart and in your mind, she'll stay with you for all of time. Love, Karen Lowery, Emily, Jessica & Jake Young
